1. On the 6th day of November 2024, Magistrate Judge Bloom recommended the case be dismissed – Frank Tufano did not receive the legal paperwork until the following week in November.
2. The preliminary decision of the judges to dismiss the case is a direct violation of Frank Tufano's Seventh Amendment Right and a clear reason as to why the amendment was created in the first place.
3. A jury of Frank Tufano's peers is capable of making the same preliminary evaluation as the judge.
